

The Silk Road by Private Train On board The Shangri-La Express And Golden Eagle

A Private, Historical and Cultural Tour from Beijing to Moscow with your English-speaking guides

Day 1, Beijing

Arrival in Beijing where you will be met and transferred to the luxurious five-star Regent Hotel for a three night stay. This afternoon enjoy free time to relax before enjoying a welcome reception followed by dinner in a local restaurant. This is a great time to get to know your fellow travellers with whom you will be sharing this unforgettable journey.

Day 2, Beijing

Today visit Tiananmen Square and then explore the magnificently restored Forbidden City. Your cultural exploration continues at the Temple of Heaven, the grandest of the four great temples situated in Beijing. Here you experience enchanting displays of traditional dancing, singing and the delicately precise ancient art of calligraphy.

Day 3, Beijing – The Great Wall

The final full day in Beijing is devoted to the most awe-inspiring site in the whole of China - The Great Wall. This amazing edifice is one of the few man-made structures visible from outer space and perhaps the most evocative symbol of Chinese skill and precision. At Badaling you have the privilege of walking along a portion of the wall – the perfect opportunity to take some memorable photographs with your fellow guests. This evening enjoy dinner in an authentic Peking Duck restaurant.

Day 4, Beijing

Following a morning at leisure, transfer to Beijing West railway station (reputedly the world's largest) to board your private train, the Shangri-La Express at the start of your epic journey to Moscow. Lunch is on board the train and in the afternoon there is time settle into cabins before having a drink in the bar before dinner.

Day 5, Xian – Terracota Warriors

Your fascinating journey of discovery takes you to Xian. Morning arrival gives you several hours to explore the world famous Terracotta Warriors, discovered by peasants only 30 years ago. The 6,000 terracotta figures and their horses are one of the greatest archaeological finds of the 20th Century. This evening enjoy the Tang Dynasty Dinner, Music and Dance Show, a wonderful performance of ancient entertainment.

Day 6, Lanzhou

Morning arrival into Lanzhou; a vital city on the Silk Route due to its principal crossing point of the mighty Yellow River. A visit to the Gansu Provincial Museum here provides evidence of the kind of goods that moved in an Eastward direction along the Silk Route and the famous 'galloping horse' dating from the Eastern Han period that was found in a nearby tomb. A late afternoon departure is followed by dinner this evening onboard the train.

Day 7, Dunhuang

Before lunch arrive in the small oasis-city of Dunhuang, where you will visit the fascinating Magao Thousand Buddha Cave Complex. This impressive site contains almost 500 grottoes, carved between 700 and 1,700 years ago. Inside you will see an amazing collection of beautiful sculptures and murals depicting the evolution of Buddhist religious art over a 1,000 year period. Over 2,000 statues and 45,000 murals still remain. We have lunch with a local folk performance in this magical setting. In the afternoon explore the vast natural beauty of the Gobi Desert by camel. Here you will discover Crescent Lake. Hidden amongst towering sand dunes, it has sustained life in this region for millennia.

Day 8, Turpan and Urumchi

This morning you will arrive in Turpan, where the Flaming Mountains create a magnificent backdrop. You then take a fascinating tour to the ancient underground irrigation system that has successfully fed the rich orchards and vineyards for centuries. Your final destination is the elegantly decaying sand city of Jiaohe that was founded in 108 BC. After lunch travel to Urumchi located in a verdant oasis between the lofty ice capped Bogda Peak, the vast Salt Lake, the pine covered Southern Hill and the alternating fields and sand dunes of the Zunggar Basin. Urumchi boasts an entry in the Guinness Book of Records for being the city furthest from any sea in the world – a staggering 1,400 miles (2,500km) from the nearest coastline. This afternoon you visit the renowned mummy exhibition at the Provincial Museum.

Day 9, Crossing Into Kazakhstan

After a final breakfast on board the Shangri La Express, you'll pass through the dramatic mountain scenery of Druzhba before arriving in Alashankou, where border controls are carried out. The border crossing takes five hours and patience is a virtue! You'll be transferred to the waiting Golden Eagle private train for the continuation of your journey to Moscow.

Day 10, Almaty, Kazakhstan

Just after breakfast the train arrives in Almaty – the largest city in Kazakhstan. This beautifully verdant city derives its name from 'Alma' meaning 'apple'. Just a short distance from the city, apple orchards thrive in abundance. Surrounded by the majesty of the Tien Shen Mountains, enjoy a traditional lunch in a Kazak 'yurt', a dwelling place of this region's nomadic people.

Day 11, Tashkent, Uzbekistan

This morning gives you the opportunity to relax with friends or listen to one of the informative lectures designed to give a greater insight into this fascinating region. Later today you arrive in the capital city of Uzbekistan and spend the afternoon touring this modern Soviet-style city which was rebuilt following the devastating earthquake of 1966. Enjoy dinner on board the train as it departs for Samarkand.

Day 12, Samarkand, Uzbekistan

Many words have been used to describe this jewel of the Islamic world, 'the Paris of the Muslim World' and 'Rome of the East'. Its admirers includes; Marco Polo, Tamerlane and Alexander the Great. Founded in the 6th century BC, its architecture gives an indication of its former status as one of the most important cities in Asia. You spend the day visiting the many fabulous buildings including the Bibi Kharum Mosque, the Ulag Beg observatory and the awe-inspiring Registan Square. Dinner is near the illuminated Registan Square, after which you return to the train for a late evening departure.

Day 13, Bukhara, Uzbekistan

Bukhara is quite simply outstanding. Like Khiva, UNESCO backed the renovation of much of the city for its 2,500th anniversary in 1999. The highlight of this wonderful tour is a visit to The Ark, a fortified residence of the Emirs of Bukhara - the despotic and ruthless leaders who ruled until Soviet times. You will then travel out of the city to experience the Emir's enchantingly named, Palace of the Moon and Stars.

Day 14, Merv, Turkmenistan

Early morning sees the train arriving in Mary, where you transfer to the ancient and mainly unrestored city of Merv. Once an important stopping point on the Silk Road, it claims to have briefly been the largest city in the world during the twelfth century. 1794 saw the demise of Merv, after the Emir of Bukhara destroyed the dam which the population depended on for its water. After your fascinating exploration return to the train for dinner.

Day 15, Ashgabat, Turkmenistan

Today you arrive in Ashgabat, capital of Turkmenistan - the 'Las Vegas of the Kara Kum'. Situated between the Kara Kum Desert and the Kopet Dag mountain range, its fountains, golden domes and towering modern buildings appear strangely incongruous in this desert setting.

Day 16, Khiva, Uzbekistan

Crossing back into Uzbekistan this afternoon the train travels towards Urgench, where you will transfer to the ancient city of Khiva, founded 2,500 years ago. As one of the Silk Road's most important trading posts and now a World Heritage Site, it lies at the crossroads of the routes between Mongolia, Russia, China and Persia. A truly magnificent sight to behold, it rises out of the desert to reveal a wealth of impressive architecture. Stepping back in time, discover its impressive mosques, bazaars and minarets within Khiva's ancient walls.

Day 17, Kara Kum Desert, Turkmenistan

Today, enjoy a relaxing day onboard as you travel across the vast expanses of the Kara Kum desert. As well as experiencing the unique landscape, you can take the opportunity to chat to fellow passengers and maybe take a Russian language lesson.

Day 18, Volgograd, Russia

Standing on the banks of the Volga, Stalingrad, as the city was known in Soviet times, was the dramatic scene of one of the most important Second World War battles. The Russians heroically turned back the Nazi advance here to alter the course of the war. You will visit the poignantly sobering Mamayev Kurgan war memorial, followed by the informative diorama and absorbing museum visit. Tonight is your final evening on board the Golden Eagle and the occasion will be marked with a farewell banquet.

Day 19, Moscow

Having travelled almost 7,000 miles (11,226km) from Beijing you arrive into Moscow late afternoon and transfer to the five-star Marriott Royal Aurora Hotel in the heart of the city.

Day 20, Moscow

A morning city tour of Moscow takes you to Red Square, an iconic symbol of Russia's former military and political might. Here you will see an eclectic mix of fascinating architecture, such as the ornate St Basil's Cathedral with its magnificent onion-domed spires, the grandeur of The Kremlin and the sombre and evocative site of Lenin's tomb. At the conclusion of your city tour, your final evening is spent saying your goodbyes to your fellow travelling companions at the Farewell Dinner.

Day 21, Moscow onwards

Following breakfast in the hotel, you will be transferred to Moscow airport to begin your journey home
