

EXETER INTERNATIONAL

A Sample Private Shore Excursion for Tallinn, Estonia with your personal English-speaking guide

Day 1

Tallinn

Option A

This morning your guide and driver will meet you for the short drive to the seaside town of Rocca al Mare, the "cliff by the sea." Here you will have the opportunity to visit the Estonian Open Air Museum. The Open Air Museum presents a unique collection of old Estonian buildings on a large expanse of seaside land. Farm buildings, windmills and water mills from various periods and regions have been brought together here for you to explore. Folk holidays are celebrated in traditional style at the museum, and often folk dance and music can be enjoyed here in the summertime.

After touring you may choose to transfer back to your cruise ship or to the heart of Tallinn's Old Town to spend some time on your own enjoying the cafes and shops.

Exeter Services: Half Day Private Vehicle, Driver and Guide

Option B

Your guide will take you on a morning walking tour including the historic heart of Old Tallinn, Toompe Castle, and the Alexander Nevsky Cathedral. Tallinn has a unique history of seafaring, foreign occupation and merchant activity dating to the 13th century. A beautiful city of ancient castles, stone towers, and medieval streets, its ageless charm is unmistakable.

The Upper Old City, or Toompea Hill is the oldest part of Tallinn, inhabited since pre-history. Note the defensive wall ringing the old city, which is the town's most striking feature. Unlike Vilnius and Riga whose walls were destroyed, eighty percent of the original wall around Tallinn in the 1500's is still intact today. In addition to having Tallinn's oldest buildings, the upper old town has good viewing platforms to view the entire old town. Toompea Castle is one of Estonia's most treasured landmarks, built by Danes and Germans after they defeated the Estonians in the early 1200's. Alexander Nevsky Cathedral is an Orthodox church built in 1900 in the Moscow style of the 17th century. This church is topped with 11 bells, including the largest (15 tons) in all of Estonia.

You will walk down through the lower part of the old city and can spend the rest of the day at leisure exploring this beautiful city.
