WHY EXETER INTERNATIONAL?

At Exeter International we have been creating memories and crafting our trademark extraordinary journeys to Central Europe, Russia, Scandinavia, and Central Asia for over 25 years. Our specialty is to distill the best of the best in iconic places that are on so many people's travel must-do list.

We are not a call center of nameless, faceless people. We do not try to be everything to everyone. We are a small team of specialists. We are all committed to providing the best travel experiences to our destinations. Each member of our team has travelled extensively throughout our destinations, giving them insider knowledge lacking in many other tour operators.

Our Extraordinary Experiences are different, unusual, and often closed to the general public. We can offer special insider access that takes you beyond the typical tourist sites. We know how important it is to remain authentic and increasingly going beyond the well-known sites is what is important to our guests—discovering the little-known museum or street market that adds to their experience. We do this through our local knowledge, cultivating our extensive contacts and regularly visiting each destination to enable us to share the most up-to-date insider information with you, our valued partner.

The most important part of your trip will be your guides. Guides come in many quality levels, especially in our part of the world. We have worked with a core group of the best of the best for over 20 years. We know them like family and if they weren't the best, they wouldn't work for us. Simply stated, a guide can make or break your experience. You should have 100% confidence in who is introducing you to your guide and the level of guiding that you are going to get throughout the countries you will be visiting. The best does indeed cost more and we pay our guides at the very top of the market, with pride.

You'll also want to know what kind of vehicle your tour will include. We use luxury late-model vehicles, often Mercedes, Audi, BMW, or Volkswagen, depending on the size of the vehicle you need. You'll want to see things that may or may not be open to the public and go in early or after hours before the crowds whenever possible. We also make every effort to skip lines whenever possible. Avoiding long museum lines is one of our top priorities and we work hard to minimize the wait time to get into the most popular sights in each city, maximizing your time in each destination.

You'll want impeccable planning and someone to bounce ideas off of before your trip and speak English as well as you do while planning your trip so there are no cultural misunderstandings when you arrive. You'll also want someone to talk to if your trip is not perfect when you get home. These are all ways that we distinguish ourselves from all other companies.

A lot goes into our travel program design. We arrange the program so that it is flawless and effortless for our travelers from the time they set foot in the first city until they leave us. The expertise to set up an itinerary like this comes after years of investing in staff on both sides of the Atlantic, and this too is a value that is incorporated into our traveler's trips with us.

DAY 1

ARRIVAL INTO COPENHAGEN

Upon arrival into Copenhagen, you will be welcomed by your private driver who will transfer you to your hotel in the heart of the city.

Evening Suggestion

On your first night in Copenhagen we recommend one of the city's top restaurants. A favorite of ours is the Soren K, which is an extension to the Royal Library situated by the waterfront of Copenhagen Harbour. Another is Restaurant Era Ora, a Michelin star restaurant that is said to have the best Italian outside of Italy.

DAY 2

COPENHAGEN - TOUR & BYCYCLE CHEF TOUR

Exeter International Extraordinary Experience

Today you will meet your personal chef for your bicycle tour of Copenhagen. Bike through the city, stopping at 3-4 prime locations where he will serve you a dish from his pedal-powered restaurant.

Your chef strives to incorporate natural settings and gastronomic menus, elevating the eater's tasting experience. When possible, tours also incorporate meeting local producers.

Evening Suggestion

This evening, we suggest a visit to the world-famous Tivoli Gardens. This classic amusement park is a lively gathering place for locals, especially in the summer when the gardens are in full bloom. In the evening, you will find the park especially enchanting thanks to the thousands of lights and often, live music. Some of the best eateries in Copenhagen are found in the Tivoli Food Hall, where you can find anything from authentic Danish fare to exciting new food concepts.

DAY 3

COPENHAGEN – CITY TOUR

This morning your guide will meet you in your hotel lobby. Enjoy a walk along the Stroget, one of the longest pedestrian streets in Europe as you make your way to Christiansborg Castle. The castle is home to the Danish Parliament and where the Queen receives her guests.

Your guide will take you through the reception rooms where you can see the Queen's tapestries. The seventeen tapestries were presented to the Queen on her 50th birthday in 2000. They depict Denmark's history from the past 1000 years. Underneath the palace, you can explore the original palace ruins, some dating back over 800 years ago.

Also on the palace grounds is Royal Library, the largest library in Scandinavia. This library functions as the National Library and library for the University of Copenhagen. An extension, the Black Diamond was built in 1999. The dark façade reflects the water as it lies along one of the city's canals. It is a lovely spot for a short break to grab a seat and enjoy the activity along the canal.

Evening Suggestion

We recommend that you take a canal tour departing from Nyhavn. This is a relaxing way to appreciate the beauty of Copenhagen's maritime beauty. We can pre-arrange this as a private or public tour, or you can simply purchase a ticket at one of the docks.

DAY 4

NORTH SEALAND DAY TRIP

Today your guide and driver will pick you up in the lobby of your hotel to begin your introduction to North Sealand. Your guide will show you the Louisiana Museum of Contemporary Art, the collection ranges from not only paintings and sculpture but architecture and design to film and photography. You will see the world-famous artists such as Miro, Warhol and Hockney next to little known gems.

You can enjoy lunch at the museum café, which has a summer patio overlooking the sculpture park. (Please note cost of lunch is not included.)

Continuing on, you will visit the village of Elsinore, with its imposing Kronborg Castle; the inspiration and setting for Shakespeare's Hamlet." Kronborg began life in the 1420s as a sort of glorified toll booth, a fortress built by King Erik of Pomerania to extract payment from ships entering or leaving the narrow sound between Denmark and Sweden that leads to the Baltic Sea. The enduring popularity of Shakespeare has, perhaps, kept Kronborg in the public eye. But even without this literary association, Kronborg still would have been added to the UNESCO World Heritage Site list in 2000 as one of the most important Renaissance castles in Northern Europe.

Exeter International Extraordinary Experience

While exploring the area, you will have the opportunity to visit a North Sealand winery. After touring the vineyards, enjoy a wine tasting.

Evening Suggestion

After a long day of touring, we recommend spending some time soaking in the city of Copenhagen from Hotel Sander's fifth story roof terrace, where you can order a snack and drinks at the small bar. The in-house restaurant also offers full service menu.

DAY 5

COPENHAGEN – WALKING FOOD TOUR

Today your guide will take you on a food tour of the city. In the past few years, there has been a real interest in Nordic cuisine. Copenhagen has numerous Michelin star restaurants.

Start at Torvehallerne, the new covered market halls, where you will sample artisan cheese, developed in collaboration with the city's Michelin-starred chefs. Try liquorice, caramels and preserves from some of the most interesting small producers.

You will explore the city; wander through Copenhagen Botanical Gardens relaxing in the beautiful green surroundings while discussing produce and local foods.

Along the way you will also pass several of the city's greatest landmarks and discuss its history, but always with food as focus. Exclusive to this tour you will try the open sandwiches called smørrebrød as well as a microbrewery where you will sample three different types of home-brewed beer.

Evening Suggestion

This evening catch a cab out to Refshaleøen, an industrial area on the outskirts of the city, where you will find former Noma head chef Matt Orlando serving up inventive dishes that continue to push Nordic cuisine at Amass. There is an a la carte menu, but we suggest choosing the small menu or full Amass menu for the full experience.
